

DPD Employees Honored for Service Milestones

Scores of Durham Police Department employees were among the honorees at the City of Durham's Annual Employee Recognition Awards Luncheon February 10, 2009.

20-year Honorees: Cpt. Larry Smith, Cathy Lipsey, Sgt. Lori Ray, MO William Greenlee, Lt. Mark Sykes, Adm. Commander Jesse Burwell, Portia Sidberry, Cpl. Hector Borges, MO Darrell Brown

Eric Arrington follows instructions of Asst. City Manager Wanda Page.

Chief Lopez and Chris Boyer (Gen. Svs. Director) honor 10-yr. recipients.

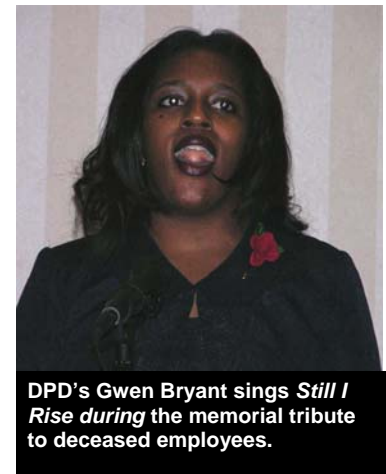

Toya Littlejohn, STARS recipient

City Manager Tom Bonfield gives congratulatory remarks.

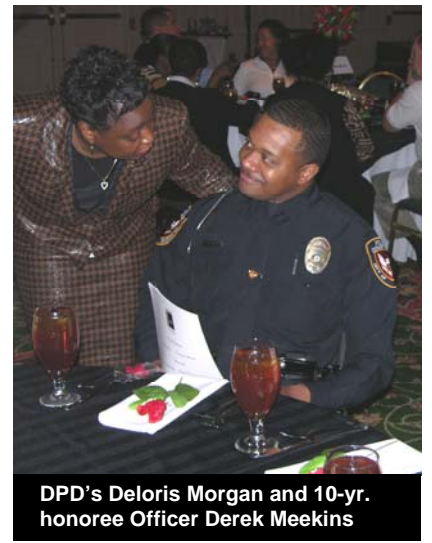

10-year recipients Cpl. Daryl Macaluso, Firefighter Maria Ratcliff and Lt. John Shelton.

DPD's Gwen Bryant sings Still I Rise during the memorial tribute to deceased employees.

Elected officials and City administrators congratulate Diversity Change Agent Award recipient Deputy Chief B.J. Council.

DPD's Deloris Morgan and 10-yr. honoree Officer Derek Meekins

2008 Retiree Chief Steve Chalmers, 30-yr. honoree Barbara Chalmers

DPD STARS Recipients Chris Moody (l) and Jason Schiess (r).

25-year recipients Pam Corbett and Master Officer Greg Grayson

2008 Retiree Master Officer Eric Hester and spouse

Daughters of DPD employee Billye Deshazo and Crime Analyst Phyllis Moore-Deshazo honored her memory.

Sgt. Lori Ray and PSN Coordinator Jennifer Snyder are greeted by fellow honoree.