For Immediate Release: February 13, 2009

WANTED – CALVIN LEWIS DAVIS

Durham police investigators are trying to locate Calvin Lewis Davis who is wanted on larceny and fraud charges.

Davis, 40, of Elizabeth Street is charged in connection with an incident Tuesday afternoon in downtown Durham. A male entered an office in a complex at 115 Market Street and stole several items out of a purse. The victim's debit card was used later at a convenience store on Alston Avenue.

Davis is wanted on charges of financial card theft, obtaining property by false pretense, identity theft and larceny. He is known to frequent the areas of Strebor Street, Linwood Avenue, Barnes Avenue and Camden Avenue.

Anyone with information on Davis' whereabouts is asked to call Investigator A.C. Rogers at 560-4406, ext. 270 or CrimeStoppers at 683-1200. CrimeStoppers pays cash rewards for information leading to arrests in felony cases and callers never have to identify themselves.
