Durham Teen Charged with Murder

A Durham teen was arrested Wednesday and charged with murder in the April 5 shooting death of 41-year-old Garba Gajam Mohammed of Raleigh.

Mohammed was found lying in the 600 block of Troy Street around 12:06 a.m. on April 5. He was taken to Duke University Hospital, where he was pronounced dead a short time later.

Javon Alexander Randolph, 18, was arrested Wednesday morning at 1617-A Fayetteville Street and charged with one count of murder. He was placed in Durham County Jail without bond.
