For Immediate Release: June 26, 2009

Durham Man Charged in Four Armed Home Invasions

Durham police investigators have arrested a man and charged him with committing four armed home invasions within four days earlier this week.

Jose Javier Reyes Marquez, 36, of Weather Hill Circle is charged with four counts of robbery with a dangerous weapon, seven counts of second-degree kidnapping, four counts of breaking and entering, one count of larceny and one count of possession of a stolen firearm.

Marquez was arrested after Durham Police Sgt. M.D. Berendsen stopped a blue Chevrolet Malibu on Guess Road near Fawn Avenue around 9:45 a.m. Friday. The suspects had fled in a blue Malibu in at least one of the robberies. Officers found two guns and several other items in the car.

Marquez is charged in connection with the following cases:

- June 22 on North Roxboro Road – Two males armed with guns and wearing bandanas over their faces kicked in the door around 11:30 a.m. and robbed the resident of cash
- June 23 on Chapel Hill Road – Two males wearing bandanas over their faces robbed a male of cash, jewelry and cameras at gunpoint around 11:30 a.m. The victim was punched in the mouth and kicked during the robbery
- June 24 on Duke Homestead Road – A male was outside mowing his lawn around 1:15 p.m. when two men wearing bandanas over their faces and armed with guns forced him into the house, kicked him, ordered him to the ground and robbed him of credit cards, a cell phone and electronic items.
- June 25 on West Knox Street – Two males armed with guns entered the house and robbed the female resident of her debit card around 11:15 a.m.

Investigators are still trying to identify the second suspect in these cases. Anyone with information is asked to call Investigator Salmon at 560-4582, ext. 29238, Investigator Coghill at 560-4583, ext. 29360 or CrimeStoppers at 683-1200. CrimeStoppers pays cash rewards for information leading to arrests in felony cases and callers never have to identify themselves.
