Durham Teen Charged with Break-Ins

A Durham teen has been arrested and charged with committing a dozen break-ins and one attempted first-degree burglary in the Northgate Park area during the past several months.

Bobby Deontrey Wyche, 18, of Gresham Avenue is charged with committing residential break-ins on Shenandoah Avenue (four), Glendale Avenue (three), West Edgewood Drive, Highland Avenue, Farthing Street, East Club Boulevard and Greenwood Drive. He is also charged with an attempted first-degree burglary on Shenandoah Avenue.

The burglaries were usually committed during the daytime hours and items stolen included television sets, jewelry, computers, other electronic items and beer.

Further charges are pending.
